The Super Bowl and Your Investments: Lessons in Risk Management

By Malcolm Horn, CFP®

Retirement and Investment Services

No matter which teams end up in the game, I hope you're as excited as I am for the upcoming Super Bowl on February 8, 2026. As the pinnacle moment in American sports approaches, it's not just about touchdowns and tackles. The Super Bowl also offers valuable lessons in risk management for investors.

Just like a championship game, investing requires a well-thought-out strategy. Here are a few key parallels between the Super Bowl and investment risk management:

Diversification is Key: Imagine if a team relied solely on its quarterback to win the game. The outcome would be risky and uncertain. Similarly, in investing, placing all your resources in one area can expose you to unnecessary risk. Diversifying your portfolio across different asset classes, sectors, and geographies may help mitigate potential losses. Diversification won't guarantee first downs, however. In investing, diversification can help manage investment risk. It does not guarantee protection against investment loss.

Preparation vs. Game-Day Decisions: Teams that make it to the Super Bowl don't just rely on last-minute decisions. They have a season-long strategy that guides their actions. In the world of investing, it's crucial to have a strategy, rather than making impulsive decisions based on short-term market fluctuations.

Adaptability is Crucial: The best teams adapt to changing conditions on the field, whether it's adjusting to weather conditions or countering an opponent's strategy.

As you enjoy the Super Bowl, consider how your financial professional can apply these strategies to your own investment journey. Whether you're a seasoned investor or just getting started, understanding and managing risk plays an important role with your financial goals.

If you have any questions or would like to discuss your investment strategy further, please don't hesitate to reach out to me or my team at ARIS: aris.alliantcreditunion.com. Maybe it can be as strong as a Super Bowl-winning team!

United Airlines Announces More Domestic Routes from Chicago O'Hare, Totaling 13 New Routes and Nearly 650 Daily Departures During Peak Summer 2026
December 19, 2025

Beginning June 1, 2026, United will resume service between Chicago O'Hare and Erie, Pennsylvania (ERI), a market last served in May 2023. Just one week later, on June 8, 2026, United will inaugurate service between Chicago O'Hare and Tri-Cities, Tennessee (TRI), marking TRI as a brand-new destination for the airline. Both routes will operate three times daily in the summer season, significantly increasing connectivity to these communities. Additionally, United will add another Lincoln, Nebraska (LNK) departure, totaling 5x daily LNK service into O'Hare. Tickets for all these new flights are on sale today.

"As we continue our steady growth at O'Hare, reaching nearly 650 daily departures during peak summer travel, we're building on the strength of a global network that's simply unmatched in Chicago," said Mark Weithofer, United's managing director of domestic planning. "Every new route we add expands the connection opportunities available to our customers and reinforces O'Hare's role as one of the most important gateways in our system."

These additions build on United's continued expansion at O'Hare – the recent addition of five new gate spaces enabled United to grow its network and offer customers even more options to unique destinations across the country. With the launch of Erie and Tri-Cities, United marks its 12th and 13th new destinations from Chicago O'Hare this year, following the upcoming addition of Clarksburg, West Virginia (CKB), which was added yesterday.

To support the continued growth at O'Hare, United recently hired more than 2,000 new local employees, bringing the total number in the Chicagoland area to more than 18,000 and driving economic growth in United's hometown city. And, by 2027, United expects to hire 5,400 more.

United Adds New Features to Award-Winning Mobile App Like Virtual Gate, Club Recommendation Tool and Real-Time Bag Tracker
December 16, 2025

United today launched new features to its award-winning mobile app to save customers even more time and further improve the overall travel experience on the world's largest airline*:

- ▲ 'Virtual Gate' gives customers real-time updates about which groups are boarding and a progress bar that shows how many people have boarded, eliminating the need to wait around the gate area.
- ▲ United Club 'closest and best' feature recommends nearby United Club locations based on proximity to travelers' gates and available capacity, with capacity insights initially offered at ORD and rolling out to additional airports in 2026.
- ▲ An upgraded mobile bag tracking feature includes a package-delivery-style tracker that shows real-time locations throughout the journey.
- ▲ Personalized updates include guidance on traveling with strollers or wheelchairs, reminders for required travel documents and biometric boarding options.
- ▲ Arrival information features provide travelers with live local weather conditions, estimated local arrival time and instructions on connecting to rideshare services directly from the airport.

United has improved upon the industry's best mobile app with AI-supported navigation tools that will predict what features would most benefit customers during their trip and personalize content to each traveler. The upgrades come as the airline expects to welcome more than 10 million people during the winter holiday travel season, the most ever for United during that time.

"The more information our customers have, the more confident they feel about their trip - and that's particularly important during the holidays," said David Kinzelman, United's Chief Customer Officer. "The United app gives travelers personalized, real-time updates during their entire travel journey, helping our customers feel like they have a personal assistant guiding them every step of the way."

More than 84% of United customers use the app the day they fly, and since beta-testing the latest app enhancements, the airline found customers appreciated the transparent communication, time saved and real-time updates.

For years, United has led the industry on adding game-changing innovations and policies across the airline to help customers self-serve and increase transparency, including:

- Personalized connection experience: United launched new, personalized app features that make catching connecting flights easier, including personalized, turn-by-turn directions to connecting gates with estimated walk times, real-time flight status updates, tips for longer layovers, and a heads up if United is able to hold the plane for those with an extra-tight connection.
- Bag tracking enhancements: United integrated Apple's Share Item Location for AirTag, so customers everywhere who travel with an AirTag or Find My network accessory can seamlessly share the accessory location with United's customer service team to help locate their luggage in the event that it is mishandled.
- Automatic rebooking assistance: Rather than standing in line to speak with an agent or manually searching for alternatives, United's self-service tools automatically provide travelers with personalized rebooking options, baggage tracking details, and, when eligible, meal and hotel vouchers if their flight is delayed or canceled.
- Real-time weather delay updates: United texts real-time radar maps to help customers understand how inclement weather in one part of the country can impact a flight elsewhere. United is the first and only U.S. airline currently providing its customers these kinds of specific messages, and the airline is sending them with assistance from gen AI tools.

United's new app features are rolling out to customers and will be widely available ahead of the holiday travel period.

The Syrup Letter

The following letter was sent to United Airlines regarding an incident on a flight in 1971:

Carl Dailey
Covina, California 91722

August 13, 1971

Mr. Edward Carlson
United Airlines Executive Offices
Chicago, Illinois 60666

Dear Mr. Carlson:

I would like to report a potential hazard to your passengers by relating my own experience on one of your flights. It was a morning flight from Seattle to Boise, Idaho with a stop at Portland. Breakfast was served on the Portland/Boise leg.

The breakfast was a fruit cup, a small waffle, two slices of ham, whipped butter, and pure maple syrup. I love pure maple syrup and I was very pleased to note that the sealed paper cup in which it was contained was hot. I set the cup on the tray with the lift tab for the seal pointing towards me and lifted the tab.

A bronze colored bullet like a missile came shooting out of the cup and without losing a drop on the way; most of that maple syrup hit me on the necktie. It then ran down over my shirt, your seatbelt, and my crotch.

The stewardess was very pleasant about getting me some wet and dry napkins for my shirt and tie, but I couldn't quite bring myself to cleaning the lower part on a crowded plane. At that time the table did cover things and what was below was known only to me. On the other hand, what do you do with a syrup covered crotch on a loaded airplane at 9:30 on a sunny morning?

Well, I decided to get it unnoticed into one of the closed toilets in the men's room at the Boise airport. Getting off the plane was not too bad. I stayed close to the lady in front of me and it was okay except for a brief moment when a dangling sleeve of the sweater she carried got stuck.

The Boise airport buildings were completely changed since my last visit and I had a little trouble finding the men's room. But I was pleased to find the airport air-conditioned and the flies weren't too bad. The men's room was loaded with the same (but segregated) group that was on my flight. Your stewardesses had been great with the coffee.

I finally got to a basin and soaked my handkerchief with water. I saturated it. It was dripping. All the toilet stalls said "occupied". I suddenly realized that this was going to cost 10 cents, so I reached my dry hand in my pocket. Nothing. The wet hand had to go in its pocket. There were two small coins which I hopefully brought into view. They were both pennies.

I now had two pennies, two wet hands, a wet handkerchief and a syrup soaked crotch in the busy men's room at the Boise airport. But I didn't let it get to me. I outmaneuvered a forest ranger for position #1 at the free toilet at the end of the line. When he saw me he just backed off.

It seemed like a long time but the fellow in the free stall finally came out. I'll say one thing for the Boise airport. This toilet had a lock on the door. I thank them for that!

I'm not going to tell you how I got rid of all that maple syrup but I suddenly realized that I looked worse than when I started. A business associate picked me up at baggage claim and he didn't say much except to ask if the seat belt signs were on the entire flight.

In any case, I would like to suggest that you quit heating your god-damn maple syrup!

Best Regards,
Carl Dailey

Mark your calendar for February 10th, our luncheon is set at Rigatony's at Santan Village in Gilbert, at 11:00AM, of course. Thanks to Mitch for arranging this luncheon.

From Joann Griffin: This is a friendly reminder to those who have not yet paid their $10 dues for 2026. Your dues help fund our outings in April (free meal at Birdies) and our Christmas luncheon (partially paid for) in December.

We all have very busy lives and cannot attend all the functions that our chapter ReUnited's has during the year. If you can pay your dues by the end of this month it would be greatly appreciated. You can give your dues in cash or check payable to Debbie Schulte or Jay Hartough. Or mail a check to our Treasurer, John Griffin, 759 S. 76th Pl., Mesa, AZ 85208. Please make your check payable to John Griffin and not to ReUnited's.

John and I will not be at the luncheon this month, but we will be at Breakfast. Our directory will be prepared by the end of March and will be sent to you in April in an email. If you have any changes to your email, address, phone contacts please text, message or email them to me so I can correct our directory before it's emailed to everyone.

sbsimonton@comcast.net

It truly was a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year 2026! The Northstaters celebrated the Christmas season with a great Christmas Party at Kalico Kitchen Restaurant in Chico. We had 15 members, spouses and guests in attendance. Sharon Simonton decorated the room with lots of fun decorations which everyone could take home if they chose to. Sharon & Bill provided Christmas cookies for dessert.

Merritt Odor, our President, ran a very short meeting and thanked Sharon Simonton on the decorations and thanked everyone for coming.

It was a bitter sweet moment as the board has decided to "park the airplane at the gate." This was our last official meeting as the Northstaters. We have had 17 years together and lots of great memories were shared. Sharon named the 6 members we had lost over the years: Hal Burdick, Jim Geiger, Walter Grundherr, Linda

Delaney, John Isbell, and Kent Jorgensen. We were very blessed to have most of the spouses stay with us. Our treasury has a small amount of money left and it was decided donate the amount to the Chico Air Museum. Our wonderful treasurer, Billie Jorgensen, will contact them to make the presentation.

We plan to get together socially in the summertime. The friendship we have shared over the years can never be replaced.

On another note, four of us went to see our oldest member, Charlotte Puryear, on her 105th birthday. We brought her favorite lunch, In and Out Burger, and shared a small birthday cake. She was doing well but finally her age is starting to show. A delightful day was had by all.

I want to personally thank all of the people involved in RUAEA for the outstanding work they have done over the years. The people involved with the newsletter, Francis & Veronica Domaratius and John Chu have always been so helpful to me when putting out these articles. I would like to also thank Ron & Barbara Bertacini, John & Pat Zoboli and our treasurer, Billie Jorgensen for the special support they have always given to this group.

The biggest thank you of course goes to our President, Merritt Odor and his wife Klaren, they gave us seventeen wonderful years of their leadership and caring about all of the members and the laughs he would share. What a wonderful representation of United Airlines and Bill and I will always be grateful for the friendship that we have shared and will continue to share. Now, as the plane gets parked, I personally hope that RUAEA will continue on for many years to come.

EAST BAY DIABLOS

Contra Costa County
Jan Soderstrom
30 San Piedras Place
San Ramon, CA 94583
(925) 833-9184

Happy Valentine's Day to everyone from the East Bay Diablos group! As I write this on January 7, we are heading in to eight days of no rain after several days of storms and flooding in various areas of California. As these storms moved east, they brought huge amounts of snow to the Midwest, Great Lakes, and Northeast. Once again, kudos to all the airline employees who kept things running and passengers safe.

Our group holds in person monthly meetings on the first Monday of the month all year long. The restaurants are still dealing with staff shortages, so we have to give them a count beforehand. If you are going to attend, you must RSVP prior to the meeting. I have put the dates of our upcoming meetings and the RSVP deadlines below. We alternate between the Old Spaghetti Factory in Concord and the Lazy Dog Restaurant in Concord. We like the Old Spaghetti Factory because they have both a regular and a senior menu with reduced portions and soup or salad, ice cream and beverage included. They also reserve a room for us. We like The Lazy Dog because it has a $15 lunch special with a nice variety of entrees. We average about 14 people at our meetings throughout the year, but more members come to our summer picnic meeting which is at a member's home. Social hour starts at 11:30 and our meal is typically served around 12:15.

Our January meeting was held on January 5 at The Old Spaghetti Factory in Concord with 6 members in attendance: Nancy Boyle, Diane Griego, Tom Johnson, Russ & Glenda Kennedy, and Jan Soderstrom. Once again, Russ Kennedy graciously picked up Tom Johnson at his board and care home so he could attend. Thank you Russ! With only six of us, we had a lovely "intimate" luncheon anyway. We sat around one table and were able to converse with everyone. President Russ Kennedy started our meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance.

A lot of people could not attend for various reasons. Tracey Blanchard was on her annual winter trip to Maui. Joe & Wilma Leather were still celebrating Christmas and New Year's with family in Boise. Joe has had some medical issues of late and it was so nice that he was able to go to Boise to be with his family. Carol Parks and Sue von Emster had doctor appointments. Judi Smith fell and broke two ribs and is in a nursing home. Barb Cunningham was in the hospital awaiting surgery the next day, January 6, to have a malignant tumor on her heart removed. Needless to say, we were all on pins and needles at our meeting worrying about her. The next day, we were thrilled to learn that the surgery was successful. The tumor came out easily and was completely removed. We signed cards for Joe, Judi and Barb at our meeting and hope they all will be feeling better soon.

At every meeting we have a raffle for money and door prizes. We pay two dollars for three tickets. The first number drawn wins the money and the door prizes are whatever everyone is inspired to bring. Diane Griego has been complaining for years that she never wins the money. It was a red letter day about a year ago when she finally won. She won again on January 5th. Even though it was only ten dollars, maybe this is the start of a lucky streak for her! The door prizes are whatever people are inspired to bring. This month we had a bottle of wine, micro fiber cleaning cloths and kitchen towels.

You may have heard that San Ramon, where I live, has had another swarm of earthquakes in December and January. It has made the local and national news. Between November 30 and January 5, we had 220 earthquakes ranging in magnitudes from 0.5 to 4.0. Luckily, only nine were magnitude 3.0 to 4.0. December 8 was the worst day with about 50 quakes. On December 23, my doorbell rang, and it was two seismologists from UC Berkeley. Scientists from both UC Berkeley and the University of Utah are conducting a seismic survey across the Livermore and Tri-Valley area. They are placing about 200 seismometers across the region to record ground motion and better understand seismic hazards in our area. They asked if I would be willing to have a seismometer placed in my yard and I said yes. I think the device will be here for a month or two, at which point they will return to retrieve the device with the data it has stored.

I told them I've been following the swarm on the USGS website and know that my house is about two blocks from two of the recent epicenters. They nodded in agreement and I think that is one reason my house was chosen. For those of you who are "geologically inquisitive," you can go out to the US Geological Survey website at usgs.gov and click on the earthquake tab to get information on the latest earthquakes in the last day, seven days, or 30 days, not only in the US but all over the world. When the list of earthquakes comes up on the left, you can click on the link to a particular earthquake, and choose interactive map. Then you can expand the map by clicking the + about seven times and you will actually get down to street level. That is how I can see the epicenter of all the quakes in my area. When they say that California is earthquake country they are not kidding. When you look at the map of California, it is very humbling to see a line of solid dots, each one representing an earthquake of any magnitude, covering the length of the San Andreas Fault. And for those of you who live outside California, and think you are immune from earthquakes, think again. If you look at the interactive map for the entire US, you will see dots representing earthquakes all across the country. It is also amazing to see how many earthquakes of magnitude of 4.5 and above happen every month all over the world.

Until recently, Barb Cunningham has been collecting both new and used Christmas cards. She donates them to a local special education teacher who uses them in his classroom. He has told Barbara he can use "all the cards he can get." The students make gift cards which they sell at the school fundraiser. This teacher needs just the cards, no envelopes. The money they raise is for special outings like field trips and other enrichment activities for the special needs students. If you have cards you'd like to donate, please hold on to them for now. Due to her recent surgery, she cannot deliver cards for a while. I'll let you know when you can resume mailing cards to her.

Jan Soderstrom is collecting coupons for the charity Support our Troops. This is a service project of her Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) chapter. I would like to renew my request to have you cut out coupons and mail them to me at 30 San Piedras Place, San Ramon, CA 94583-3018. The cost of groceries has skyrocketed in the last year or so. Unfortunately, at the same time, manufacturers are cutting back on the coupons they are issuing, especially on food items, just when people need help the most. So anything we can send to the troops is greatly appreciated—food, nonfood, baby and pet; and both current and expired. This is such an easy thing to do to support our troops. For the price of a first class stamp, you can get about 90 coupons in an envelope. If you have more than one ounce, invest in some additional ounce stamps - the cute ones with the school bus. The coupons have to say Manufacturer's Coupon. If they come in a strip, please cut them into separate coupons. The collected coupons are then distributed to overseas military personnel for use in their commissaries. The commissaries honor them for six months after the published expiration date so expired coupons can be sent too. However, please send me coupons at least every other month so the troops have a longer time to use them. All of my coupon donors are complaining that they are getting very few coupons now, so the only way we can maintain our level of support is if more people send me coupons. Ask your friends and neighbors, and the people at your RUAEA meetings, to send me coupons as well!

I am so grateful for the kindness of all the RUAEA members who are helping me with this project. I have been turning in coupons every month since May 2022. In January, I turned in 111 coupons. This was my lowest month to date. I don't know if it was due to the holidays or the sign of a continuing downward supply of coupons. Only time will tell. Thank you so much to the members in my local RUAEA chapter and to members from all over the country who are sending coupons. This month I received coupons from Diane Griego in CA, Margie Klaus in NV, Carol Koslosky in NY, Georgia Rutkowski in NV, and Arlene McCroy in NV.

Helpful hint when cutting out coupons. Please make sure you do not cut off any part of the barcode or the expiration date. The narrow strip coupons for Claritin etc. are the worst. It's very easy to cut off the "5" in the expiration date of 11/01/25, for example, which is right next to the edge of the coupon. The coupon cannot be used and has to be thrown away.

Our meetings are the first Monday of the month and we meet all 12 months of the year. Upcoming Meetings: Please join us!

Hisses, hisses, rattle, rattle – The end of 2025, The Year of the Snake, has come to an end. It has been a busy one and we look forward to 2026. Clip, clomp, clip, clomp – The Year of the Horse has entered our year on shaky legs and we need to keep the faith! Someone must have shaken Mother Nature's abode as she has given us too many uncertain weather days – droughts, rain, sleet, snow up to our eyeballs, thunder, lightning, floods, fires, earthquakes and even a tornado alert for us here in our small county in upper California! (This is a first for us!)

Uncertain as to where we would hold our monthly meetings has kept us on our toes, all is not lost as The Elevator in the Community Center (after one fix, the second “fix” seems to have worked,) above the Foster City Library on Hillsdale Blvd. and Shell Blvd. and, is now working and we will meet in the Wind Room on the second floor. Hours and times are: The 4th Monday of the month, 10:00am to 10:20am Board Meeting, 10:20am to 12 noon, short general meeting and social time. 11:30ish leave for lunch at one of our local restaurants. Here is our planned luncheon schedule:

- January 26 ~ 10am, meeting, B.J.’s Restaurant, 2206 Bridgepoint Parkway, San Mateo
- February 23 ~ 10am, meeting, Tai Wu Chinese Restaurant, 1080 Foster City Blvd, Foster City
- March 23 ~ 10am, meeting, Lazy Dog Restaurant, 2208 Bridgepoint Parkway, San Mateo
- April 27 ~ 10 am meeting, Jacks’ Restaurant 1750 S. El Camino, San Mateo
- May 18 (Note: 3rd Monday as May 25th is a National Holiday) Ay Caray Taqueria 478 Norfolk St., San Mateo, (Shoreview Shopping Center.)

As we had no general meeting in December, a nice group of members enjoyed our Christmas luncheon at Bellinis’ Italian Bistro in Foster City; laughter, tasty food and colorful holiday sweaters. A special shout-out to the Board and loyal members for all their help in keeping our group going! Thank You! Several members have moved away to be closer to family – we miss you and hope all is going well for you. Members on the TLC list are feeling better and we hope to see you soon – hey everyone, get those shots: Flu, RSV, Pneumonia, Covid boosters so that if you catch one of those bugs, you will have a “lesser” time of it. Walk for 10 minutes after meals will help you stay well (nag, nag, nag!) Remember to make Doctors’ appointments early (eye, dental, heart, etc..) as it may take you over a month to secure one (you can always cancel – early, so that you don’t get “fined” for not appearing!) Have had my share of doctors so that I am on a first name basis with most and have told them that they may not retire until I have expired!

The end of the last year brought sad news of the death of John Domenichini – a long ago member who was very much involved with the Mainliner Club, Retirees group and the SFO Interline Club. Who can’t forget the Russian River raft and BBQ yearly bash? It brought airline employees from all over the World! John had a great laugh and was always ready to help whenever asked, rest in peace dear friend. Please let a Board member know someone who is sick as we can send off a get-well card. Call a friend and let them know you are thinking of them. Go see a good movie, read a good book, take a line dancing class, learn a new hobby, cook a new recipe, and eat a good steak (at the price of beef these days?) – you get the picture, don’t stagnate! Happy Birthday to all of you who had lots of candles to blow out – we won’t tell how old you are as age is just a number – to those 100 and over, Wow! – We salute you. Thanks to all of you who donated “goodies” for our raffles – much appreciated! We have a couple of farmers who have shared their wealth. Remember to pay your dues for 2026 if you have not done so - $15.00 per person (a bargain no less!)

Conundrum of the Day: How is it that we put a man on the moon before we figured out it would be a good idea to put wheels on luggage?

Come join us if you are in town, all United and Continental retirees are welcome - we meet on the 4th Monday of the month at 10:00am at the Wind Room at the Community Center above the Foster City Library, in Foster City. Note: Our mailing address is: UAL-SFO Bay Area Retirees, c/o Ginger Dahlberg, 821 Magellan Lane, Foster City, CA 94404.

Wow! Here we are just about to celebrate Christmas; only a week later we will be heralding in a whole New Year – again! What a privilege it is to still be looking forward to events like these. At our last luncheon for 2025, I looked around the room at this wonderful group of people I get to call my friends. I would say, overall, that we are doing pretty darn well ... sure, we may not skip any longer, or jump rope, but we are still mobile, we are still able to talk and laugh with each other, we are healthy despite a few concerns, of course and we help one another when and how we can. For sure, we are all blessed to be living a good life; we have each other. We are strong, we are fun, we are awesome.

Since we don’t have a “regular meeting” in December, I did not have my notebook handy to jot down a couple notes, but, I’ll give you what I’ve got: Rudy Blazius extended to everyone “Best Wishes” for great Christmas and New Year celebrations. Ann Marie Sutherland wanted to tell everyone “Thank You” for all the donations – funds, toys, food – that we have given, especially at this time of the year. I was across the room from her so I wasn't able to hear all that she said, but I believe she said that we helped 53 families to have a good Christmas. She also reminded us of the Wreaths Across America project that was to happen on Sat., December 13th. The American Auxiliary unit where she is the president, participates in putting wreaths on all the Veterans' graves and a Star of David on those appropriate. I am hearing that it is quite a sight to see so if you plan to visit a lost loved one, you will be able to appreciate their efforts.

Thom Biro also wanted to inform us that Mike Takamatsu has passed away. Mike was manager of SFOOW, wide body maintenance. If we get more information, I'll pass it along to you.

If you weren't able to join us at this luncheon, you missed out on a special get together. The room we dine in is separate from the main building. It is kind of a round, enclosed structure. They had round tables decked out very fancy-ish and it is nice that we are served our food in "courses" - appetizers, salad, main entrée and a delicious chocolate mousse. Non-alcoholic drinks are provided but they have a bar service you can take advantage of and pay for separately. This year, they had a round fire pit complete with fire! Outside there is a cool, rustic old barn (I think) and lots of green foliage to give some ambiance. Suzanne & Tom Kenny make all the arrangements for us, collect the orders (prime rib or salmon) the funds and make sure everything is in good order. Jane Gibson loves to do the decorations. They have nice decorations, but I like to do special center pieces which were raffled off. As we seem to be fond of candy, there were little Santa's bags full of candy kisses to enjoy later. It is a nice, fun way to send out the year.

Rudy & Cindy Blazius are hosting our January 2026 luncheon at the Round Table Pizza in Cameron Park. Don't let the name "pizza" fool you, they have a lunch special, salads, sandwiches, burgers and more!

So, I'll close this last 2025 minutes with a wave, a smile, a hug and a "See you next year!"

If you're going out partying, pay attention to your curfew time! You don't want to get grounded!

The year 2026 is well on its way and it is too soon to make any predictions but I wish for many good wishes and blessings for everyone.

The rain and cool weather has finally arrived in San Diego, though not cold and snowy like much of the country, we do feel the chill. There are people out walking around with their umbrellas but still wearing sandals and tank tops! It's the "Southern California Living Style" that we are so accustomed to.

Betty Tomaino spent the Holidays with family in N. Carolina and then departed on a cruise; we will anxiously await her return and the stories and adventures she will have to tell us.

Louie Semon is on his third back-to-back cruise with only a short time in Port before he departs again. He will come home with a good case of sea legs.

There are three Birthdays for February: Louie Semon will celebrate on February 2nd and Paul Zadrozny will celebrate his birthday on February 15th, right after Valentine's Day, I am thinking there will be some extended celebrating going on! February is a short month and Calvin Iida will celebrate on the 28th and no problem if he carries the celebrating on to March 1! We only have one birthday a year and we have fewer of them left to us so make the most of it!

Calendar:

February 5 – Breakfast at Pt Loma Cafe. If your travel plans bring you to San Diego, we would love to have you join us! Send me a note as I have to advise the Cafe of the number of attendees.

March 5 - Breakfast at Pt Loma Cafe.

The Sacramento Gold Diggers had met in early December for their Holiday Luncheon. It was a good time for all and we collected many nice gifts for the Toys for Tots program.

We have heard many positive comments about the RUAEA Reunion in Denver and look forward to Houston in 2026. Barbara and I had to miss the Denver gathering due to health issues and sure did miss seeing everyone. We had managed every other convention/reunion since 1997 and have fond memories of most of them.

The Gold Diggers are doing well and look forward to a good 2026. We cordially invite anyone who may be in the Sacramento area to join us we meet the last Wednesday of the month. Just send me an email if you would like to attend and I will pass on the details of where we are meeting.

Wishing all of our retirees a most Happy New Year!

This year our Christmas Luncheon/Get together was hosted by Bob & Mary Brown at their home in Manteca. Steve & Jacque Foster graciously supported Bob & Mary Brown. While everyone brought a dish to share, the Browns and the Fosters donated the main dishes. We had a full house; we thank them for making this a great party. It was a great lunch and get together. I've included a couple of photos.

Along with lunch, we celebrated two very special anniversaries: the 68th Christmas Eve Wedding Anniversary of Bob & Sandy Brooks and Betty's 102nd Birthday Celebration. Both very special milestones and we were lucky enough to help them celebrate.

As a reminder there is no meeting in January. We do plan to get together in February on the 12th as usual. Since I did not circulate our meeting host sign-up sheet this year (yet); Pat and I will pick one of our usual haunts and let everyone know. Please plan to join us and I will probably hit everyone for dues, remember those?

As a final reminder, please let me or Steve Foster know of you plan to join us in February. This helps us to help the restaurant prepare if needed.

Merry Christmas to all and have a Happy and Safe New Year!

How fast did the past year fly by, it's already a new year. I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday and are looking forward toward this new year. If you haven't yet made a resolution or want to add one more for this year, think about making one that will have you attending the RUAEA annual reunion in Houston.

Our annual Christmas party was a huge success thanks to Jean Jenkins and Karen Jenkins who both did a great job at planning, organizing and setting up the table decorations. It was quite a sight to see the area we had to ourselves at Effie's restaurant and over 25 people in attendance.

It was so nice to see all that attended. Jean went so far to get prizes and hold a raffle. It was amazing to see all the people who had never won anything, suddenly win the raffle. Actually I think everyone in attendance won a prize, what are the chances! Jean also was very gracious in providing the delicious dessert, Christmas cupcakes. Everyone had a wonderful time and thanked Jean and Karen for all their efforts.

Our gatherings will continue in 2026, on the first Monday of the month, at 10:00AM, in the same place, the Bill of Fare, at 1069 Saratoga Ave., San Jose. About a mile South of highway 280. Please come and join us!

There were 10 members attending the first gathering of 2026. Fortunately for us, the restaurant was very accommodating as members continued to arrive and added tables for everyone to sit, indoors. Conversations centered around what everyone got for Christmas and celebrating the New Year and then evolved to health issues.

Chuck Theuner was involved in a serious accident by a driver running a red light; thankfully the airbags did their job, but he still suffered a couple cracked ribs. Rosie Reichard inadvertently broke her ankle and had to go to rehab, but is doing OK now. Bob Devlin continues to recover and is staying active, by attending our get-togethers.

The recent rain in the Bay Area has put a damper on activities, yet some brave members were able to get up to the mountains to celebrate the New Year. At least all our reservoirs are full now, so hopefully we won't see a drought this summer.

We will make reservations with Vasona for our June picnic on one day of the week of June 14th, more details as we get closer. Keep in mind we will need volunteers to help this year with the picnic, so if you can, please plan to help out.

February—The shortest month, but definitely not the least important! Most people think of Valentine's Day, but we have more. Martin Luther King's Day, President's Day, Groundhog Day, Lunar New Year, Ash Wednesday, the 18th, preceded by Shrove Tuesday, Work Naked Day, Lucky Duck Day, Toothache Day, Umbrella Day, Don't Cry Over Spilled Milk Day (for the cats), Polar Bear Day, Chocolate Mint Day, Be Humble Day (at least try), and Tell a Fairy Tale Day. Pick one, they all sound interesting.

The flowers are violets and the primrose. The gem for February is the amethyst, a symbol of trust, friendship and love. In mid-February, Romans celebrated Lupercalia, a pagan festival to ward off evil spirits and promote fertility, involving sacrifices and gentle whipping with animal hides. Whipping promotes fertility? Sounds kinky to me. The February moon is the Snow Moon, for obvious reasons, considering the month usually has the most snow. The 1st will usher in the full moon.

The Northside breakfast had Charlie Lewis, Marion Osial, Dennis Zachara, Paul & Marsha Sealock-Weber, Dave Dunham, and Lynne Hilderbrand, whom we haven't seen in a while. Welcome back. People still having questions about the UAL insurance. Very important, a year can be a long time with the wrong choice costing us lots of money.

The ORDMM mechanics had 9 people, Fred Seibert, Frank Wenig, Jim Kraft, Bob Palm, Harry Kargenian, Don Kramlich, Boris Spitz, Rich Protsman, Jim Vitte and our non-replaceable server, Ruthie. Everyone was happy to see each other so close to Christmas.

Only two ORDMM supervisors were able to make it in, Bob Smietanski and Tom Abraham. They found plenty to talk about and reminisce.

The IRS has found a new way to complicate our lives, if you don't do your taxes by computer. They are no longer accepting paper checks for tax payments or issues paper check refunds. All payments and refunds must be processed electronically starting January 15, 2026. Most of you probably do your taxes by computer or by a preparer, but something you should know.

Here's a new one concerning bags: Boarding pass systems now sync with security cameras to count visible bags. Digital scanners track your bag count. Doesn't matter if you 'combine' bags, if they see it, they count it. Totes, backpacks, laptop bags, purse worn cross-body, it will all be counted. The 'Personal Item' definition is stricter. Must fit completely under the seat, usually 18"x14"x8". Structured bags, anything with rigid sides, or bags that stick out, are flagged. Packing cubes clipped to your carry-on, they count now too. Carry-on Size Limits enforced at boarding. Standard carry-on max, 22"x14"x9", includes wheels and handles. Gate bag sizers are disappearing but digital measuring is replacing them. Weight limits are coming to US airports. Tip - weigh your bag at home, overweight fees can start at $50. Smart luggage battery rules strictly enforced. Lithium batteries must be removed by hand. Non-removable battery bag gets confiscated at gate. Keep liquids under 3.4 oz in clear pouch. Basic economy-personal item only. Most airlines restrict overhead bin for basic economy fares. If you want to use the overhead, you could pay $30-60 to upgrade. Check your airline website for specifics.

When you're up in an airplane thousands of feet in the air, the body goes through changes, we lose about 30% of our sensitivity to sweet and salty flavors. The pressurized cabin makes the humidity levels drop, this affects our taste buds and olfactory systems. That's why chefs intentionally over-season their food to compensate for that. They don't necessarily add sugar or salt, they add cream or try a crisper food to make it taste better. Some wines and sparkling drinks are chosen because they retain their balance better in drier air. Tomato juice is always on the menu since the altitude makes it taste better.

A few weeks ago, I received an article on Facebook, I was very moved by it. It read, The Silent Struggles of Being 80 Years Old, have no idea who wrote it. As I read, I realized, you don't have to be 80 to experience these challenges, you could be any age. These are just common sense items that we have experienced, are going through now, or will very soon. After all, we've never been this old before. Something new for us every day. It's quite lengthy, so I might only type part of it. I hope you enjoy it as much as I did.

Turning 80 is something many never thought they would reach, and yet, here you are. There is wisdom in your eyes and strength in your steps, even if they feel slower now. But between the smiles and polite nods, there are silent struggles you may not always share. They sit quietly in your thoughts, in your routines, and in the spaces where others have gone. This explores what those struggles feel like and what can be done to help you feel steady, seen and hopeful again. Because even at 80, there is still much to hold onto and much to enjoy.

One of the hardest parts of growing older is learning to live with loss. The older you get, the more you begin to notice who is no longer sitting beside you. Some leave suddenly, while others slowly slip away from memory or health. Friends who once knew everything about you are now missing from your days. Their laughter no longer fills the room. Their names still come to your mind, but their voices no longer answer back. It's not just people who pass away, some grow distant with time, unable to visit or talk like they once did. Health, distance, or new responsibilities create quiet gaps where closeness once lived. Family members may still be present, but the conversations feel different. They talk about things you no longer follow. They move through life quickly, while you are left watching from the edges.

Grief does not always come with tears. Sometimes it comes with long silences, quiet dinners, and afternoons that feel far too long. It can sneak in during your favorite show or a walk where someone used to join you. The hardest part is not the emptiness itself, but the way it settles without permission. It does not ask if you are ready. It just arrives. But in the midst of it all, your memories are a kind of comfort. You carry your loved ones in every step, in every habit they helped shape. Speaking about them, or sharing their stories helps keep them close. You are still here, and you still matter. Your life, though touched by loss, is not defined by it. New friendships can still grow, even if they look different than before. Others may need your wisdom, your kindness, your steady heart. Even with fewer familiar faces, you are never truly alone. Love remains, and so do you. I'm going to stop at this point because the other half touches on some other points and subjects. Come back next month and I'll finish up with the rest of this enlightening article that has so much more to say.

Stay with me, it's worth it.

Welcome 2026!

I'm hoping that you had a beautiful and peaceful holiday. Now that the holidays are over, it's time to look forward to the new year and all that it brings.

Prayers and positive thoughts are requested for our United family members. Make it your New Year's resolution to reach out to someone you have not been in contact with. It will make their day and yours.

News came today of the passing of Sandy Sloan on January 4. We have no further details as of this writing.

Peggy Shubnell, former DTWRR reservation manager, passed away on Thursday, November 27, 2025 in Pennsylvania. She and her late husband, Paul, retired to Yardley, PA. We have no further information.

Jeff LeFleur, retired DTWRR tower, recently had surgery and is recuperating in a rehab facility in Jackson, MI. His wife, Carole, has had extensive health issues since April of last year. Both are hoping to be able to come home soon. Cards would certainly be welcomed; their home address is: 1117 Scarlet Oak E, Jackson, MI 49201-9546.

Are you looking for something to do this year? How about hosting a retiree luncheon? It is a great way to see old friends. Contact Marguerite Venn at mptv85@gmail.com or (313) 909-9053.

Thought for the month: "Gratitude is the feeling of thankfulness and appreciation for the good things in your life."

And now for a little humor, with some philosophy thrown in occasionally, to make your day pass with a little more fun!

- ☺ I just want to get to a place financially where adding Guac isn't a big decision.
- ☺ Keep talking, I'm diagnosing you!
- ☺ I don't know how to act my age. I've never been this age before. But I'm sure having fun trying to figure it out.
- ☺ We'll be best friends until we are old and senile, then we'll be new best friends forever!
- ☺ I'm at that age in life when I've finally got my head together, and now my body is falling apart!
- ☺ We all know that mirrors don't lie. I'm just glad they don't laugh!
- ☺ Of course I talk to myself. Sometimes I need expert advice.
- ☺ I have a lot of stuff to do today ... Now I have a lot of stuff to do tomorrow.
- ☺ And yet again this morning, no one was standing next to my bed saying, "your Royal Highness, here is your coffee". Go figure.
- ☺ By the time you are 80, you've learned all you really need to know. The trick is remembering it!
- ☺ Don't get all weird about getting older. Our age is merely the number of years the world has been enjoying us!
- ☺ Age is just a number until you bend over to tie your shoes ... or remember where your shoes are ... or people can hear you when you stand up from a block away and you can't hear them unless they are 6 inches from your face ... or ... shall I go on?
- ☺ And now for a few puns:
 - I put my grandma on speed dial. I call that Instagram
 - Stealing someone's coffee is called mugging
 - Pasteurize: Too far to see
 - Whoever invented "Knock-knock" jokes should get a no-bell prize
 - The other day I held the door open for a clown. It was a nice jester
 - No matter how much you push the envelope, it'll still be stationery
 - Energizer bunny arrested: Charged with battery
- ☺ Only a woman who's delivered a baby without an epidural can truly understand ... the suffering a man goes through when he has a cold.
- ☺ Many years ago there once was a king who was only 12 inches tall ... terrible king, but a great ruler.
- ☺ If you don't want me showing up in pajamas, then maybe don't put the words "evening wear" on your invitation!

- ☺ My new car has a button for pretty much everything. There is even one that says, “rear wiper”. I’m still too afraid to try that one.
 - ☺ Carpe diem = Seize the day. Imodium = Don’t sneeze today!
 - ☺ I’d be unstoppable if procrastination didn’t take up all of my free time.
 - ☺ Beauty isn’t about a pretty face. It is about having a pretty mind, a pretty heart, and most importantly, a beautiful soul!
 - ☺ When someone tells you to get a grip ... apparently around their neck is not what they meant ... who knew?
 - ☺ I just got an emotional support animal. It’s a pig. Not the whole pig. Okay, it’s bacon!
 - ☺ And today I’m wearing pink to raise awareness for ... people like me who forgot to separate red laundry from white laundry.
 - ☺ Whenever I try to eat healthy, a chocolate bar looks at me and Snickers.
 - ☺ My entire life can be summed up in one sentence ... Well that didn’t go as planned!
 - ☺ Realized I had to use the bathroom. Got up and walked across the house to the pantry. I couldn’t remember why I was in the pantry. Remembered that I had to use the bathroom. Walked back across the house to the bathroom. Sitting on the throne, I remembered why I went to the pantry ... toilet paper.
- Until next month!

Happy New Year from your Philly friends!

It seems like time has just flown by: With the Holidays coming so fast, even though we have known they were coming, all of a sudden they showed up; and what a great time it was for most of us.

We will not have a luncheon until April. We had a fun time at our Christmas Party Luncheon in December.

Hope all is well at this time. We are looking forward to our next chapter report next month. Once again to everyone; a Healthy and Happy New Year!

The new PIT terminal opened with much media fanfare prior to the Thanksgiving holiday; according to media outlets, everything went as smooth as glass! I talked to a former co-worker and there were parking issues as well as the roadways entering the airport were backed up quite a bit due to all the changes.

Our chapter did not have a Christmas luncheon to my knowledge. Hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the PIT Stoppers.

Submitted by Carl Alford, President

We welcomed 36 members to our December luncheon. Everyone was excited about the upcoming holidays and a festive Christmas spirit was clearly present. Due to the generosity of Nasreen Mustaqim and Sharon Wright, we had an overabundance of very nice prizes to accompany that spirit. The lucky winners were Gayle Wasilewski, Nasreen Mustaqim, Carl Alford, Kerrie Schneider, Kate Connelly, Barb Hipple, Gale Heuser, Mari McColl, Mary Beth Collins, and John "Hawk" Williams, who graciously passed along his prize to Sharon Wright. It was only fitting that our winners included the two generous gift-givers, who each went home with a gift from the other.

In addition to the many door prizes, a variety of travel-related items were also available for the taking. Mary Beth Collins, who'd spent years assisting the late Benita Bell with her estate, was kind enough to bring many items from Benita's collection to our meeting. It was heartwarming to see these being passed along to people who understood and appreciated their significance.

Once again, Kerrie Schneider led us in singing a number of beautiful carols and songs of Christmas. For "The Twelve Days of Christmas," each table was assigned their own day to heighten the frivolity. Joy and laughter were felt throughout the room!

The other highlight of the day was this year's "Ugly Sweater Contest." We had a lovely variety of contestants with an equally lovely variety of sweaters. With no truly "ugly" sweaters in the running, by applause, we chose E. K. Williams' as the best. (The accompanying photo shows our participants standing behind some of the items from Benita Bell's collection.)

If you find yourself in the DC area on the second Wednesday of the month, please join us. We meet at 11:30AM at the Golden Corral in Manassas, VA, September through May. Happy holidays to all!

The Galley Queen: Dinner Theater at 35,000 Feet

There is a specific kind of magic—and perhaps a touch of madness—that exists in the memory of a wide-body galley during a 1970's dinner rush. To the uninitiated, it looked like a frantic dance in a pressurized box. But to those of us in the Clipped Wings community, it was our stage. We weren't just safety professionals; we were the "Galley Queens", and we orchestrated five-star spectacles with little more than a temperamental oven and a prayer.

Today's service is a marvel of "efficiency"—which is code for "everything comes in a plastic box". But back then, we didn't just peel back a foil lid, we performed surgery. Remember the Chateaubriand? We carved that roast seat-side while the DC-10 decided to do a little "light chop" dance. Nothing tested your grace quite like wielding a carving knife at 30,000 feet while trying not to deposit a slice of prime beef into a passenger's lap.

Then there was the 747, the "Queen of the Skies", where the galley felt like a high-stakes obstacle course. We tossed Caesar salads in giant wooden bowls, ensuring the dressing coated every leaf just right—usually while praying the "Upper Deck" passengers didn't all decide they needed a refill at the exact same moment. We were the original multi-taskers, navigating aisles with carts that weighed more than we did, long before "ergonomics" was a word and when our high heels were considered "sensible footwear". And there were always the prayers that all galley elevators were in good working order.

The galley was the heart of the plane. It was where we swapped the real "stories" (the gossip), managed the occasional "difficult" passenger with a wink to our flying partners, and mastered the art of looking unbothered while the coffee pot threatened to go rogue.

While the menus are now simplified and the carts are lighter, the spirit of the Galley Queen remains. We provided a legacy of hospitality that a pre-packaged snack box just can't touch. As we gather for our Clipped Wings meetings in the New Year, we carry those memories with us: The smell of fresh coffee, the clink of real glassware, and the pride of knowing we survived the era of seat-side service with our dignity—and our hairstyles—intact.

Here's to easy travel in the New Year ... ☺

I've been a RUAEA member since my retirement in 2001 after 42 years at United Airlines. I have enjoyed my life with my wife Jerri of 60 years until health issues caused her death shortly after her 82nd birthday this year. I've been a little lost since that time.

So far, I've been able to still volunteer as a volunteer motorman on the Astoria Riverfront Trolley, which promotes tourism seasonably for visitors and cruise ships stopping at the mouth of the Columbia River near the Pacific Ocean.

I want to thank the RUAEA staff for keeping us informed. In particular, the "Contact Column" was helpful for me this year.

Thank you for all the good work you team does. I'm happy to pay my membership dues.

Enclosed please find my membership renewal and some extra for the Postal fund. We have always enjoyed the RUAEA Newsletter and hope you can keep it up.

My wife of 38 years, Lisa, and I are enjoying retirement in Goodyear, AZ (west of Phoenix) after a 30-year career in media relations and being a spokesman for United mainly in Chicago but also a couple of years in Cleveland. RUAEA helps keep me up to speed on what is happening at United these days.

The expansion of flying for 2026 is exciting. And the company will turn 100 years old in April. Every so often, I stumble across the name of someone I worked with. It doesn't happen with every issue of the newsletter, but when it does happen, it sparks good memories.

Thomas F. Boyle

RUAEA is providing a great service via the Newsletter; I enjoy reading it in all my 26 years of retirement and loving it.
